

PRE- AND POST-CONFERENCE TOURS

Make plans to visit and explore the many activities and sites that can be found in and around Denver, Colorado. There are no organized conference Pre- or Post-Tours. However, by going to www.denver.org you can plan individualized visits and activities that are of the most interest to you.

Stay at the 2012 conference hotel, DoubleTree by Hilton Hotel Denver, while you explore the Denver area.

Hotel Registration: DoubleTree by Hilton Hotel Denver

Go to www.denver.org/transportation/colorado-tours and change the “refine box” to sightseeing tours to find a list of companies that furnish transportation and tours.

You may also rent a car, enjoy the complimentary parking at the hotel, and easily drive to many locations that are within an hour’s drive from Denver.

Denver is 5,280 feet above sea level and known as the “Mile High City.” It was established in 1858 when gold was discovered. It has a population of almost 3 million people and is the capital of the State of Colorado.

For an overview of Denver history, attractions, and entertainment visit www.denver.org. There you will find information on the following:

About Denver

- Facts and Information
- Climate
- History
- Neighborhoods

What to Do

- Day Trips
- Shopping
- Recreation and Sports
- Arts and Culture

Events

- Theater
- Music
- Museums
- Sports
- Kid and Family Activities

Getting Around

- Airport Information
- Transportation
- Charters and Tours
- Driving Directions
- Maps

Dining and Nightlife

- Restaurants

To plan your time before and after the conference, go to www.denver.org.

Contact Marty McFarland at siecdenver@gmail.com with questions.